

Membership Value Proposition

Advocacy

Belonging to something of importance and affecting positive change PMI Members belong to an organization that is passionate for the profession and has cultivated relationships with both businesses and governments around the world to promote the value of the profession as a key driver to success. Many businesses and government have looked to PMI as a resource to understand how project management can help their organizations. PMI is advocating for project managers around the globe every day, making a positive impact and elevating the project manager as a key driver in the organization

Recognition

Achieving prestige status. PMI is the recognized global leader of project management. PMI provides and extends that recognition to its members by association. Long standing members, volunteer leaders and fellows earn prestige among not only their peers, but others in the business world who have benefited from their knowledge, expertise and project management skills.

Community

PMI also provides community. The PMI knowledge portal, projectmanagement.com offers opportunities for networking and a link to project managers everywhere. PMI also offers a deeper richer experience with community and possibilities for connections with others that give the assurance, that there is always someone there who can help.

Knowledge

Demonstrating competence through professional development and learning. PMI is committed to developing competent project managers for the organizations and government - as a knowledge resource. PMI is head and shoulder above the rest in providing professional development and learning opportunities through its credentials, academic research. online learn global conferences and peer to peer expertise. PMI membership offers unique access to these opportunities.

Contribution

Giving for the greater good, benefitting others. PMI is probably best suited to be an advocate for the greater good for the world community just because of the nature of the skills project managers have. Whether its building drinking wells, educating kindergartners or teaching organizations how to use project management principles, PMI member eager to help the world benefit from their abilities. PMI membership helps facilitate that.